Dear Families,

Do you all know how amazing your kids are?! It has been a great start to the school year, and everyone is settling into the school routine. This summer we made a few structural changes to our school schedule that have paid huge dividends for our students. Every morning students have a soft entry into the day with an extended breakfast and morning meeting time with their class. The goal of this time is to build the classroom community, teach ways to manage the demands of school for the day, and get settled in before the day begins.

Additionally, we made changes to the lunch and recess schedules. These unstructured times can be challenging for students to know how to navigate. We have broken up the schedule so fewer students are in the cafeteria and at recess, increasing the ratio of adults to students. The goal is to provide a less stimulating environment and more chances for the supervisors to work through typical peer conflict.

With both of these changes, we see students utilize strategies to solve problems, and in turn, see less peer conflict. Overall, we see students who have connected with their school community.

We have the most amazing kids at Clay Lamberton. Every single one has so many gifts and talents that we get to see and be a part of. Thank you for sharing them with our staff and working together to make Clay a fantastic school.

Best Wishes,

Jena Nolan, Principal
Michael Dexheimer, Assistant Principal

Desfile de Halloween

Queridas familias,

¿Todos sabéis lo maravillosos que son vuestros hijos? Ha sido un gran comienzo del año escolar y todos se están adaptando a la rutina escolar. Este verano hicimos algunos cambios estructurales en nuestro horario escolar que han dado enormes dividendos a nuestros estudiantes. Cada mañana, los estudiantes tienen una entrada suave al día con un desayuno prolongado y un tiempo de reunión matutino con su clase. El objetivo de este tiempo es construir la comunidad del aula, enseñar maneras de manejar las demandas de la escuela durante el día y adaptarse antes de que comience el día.

Además, hicimos cambios en los horarios de almuerzo y recreo. Estos tiempos no estructurados pueden ser un desafío para que los estudiantes sepan cómo navegar. Hemos dividido el horario para que haya menos estudiantes en la cafetería y en el recreo, aumentando la proporción de adultos por estudiantes. El objetivo es proporcionar un entorno menos estimulante y más oportunidades para que los supervisores resuelvan los conflictos típicos entre pares.

Con ambos cambios, vemos que los estudiantes utilizan estrategias para resolver problemas y, a su vez, ven menos conflictos entre compañeros. En general, vemos estudiantes que se han conectado con su comunidad escolar.

Tenemos los niños más increíbles en Clay Lambertson. Cada uno tiene tantos dones y talentos que podemos ver y ser parte de ellos. Gracias por compartirlos con nuestro personal y trabajar juntos para hacer de Clay una escuela fantástica.

Los mejores deseos,

Jena Nolan, directora Michael
Dexheimer, subdirector
